a Declaration by the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress assembled When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for to people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to solve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to solve the bands which have connected them with the course of the solve the - Sieme among the powers of the earth the separate and equal which the laws of nature & of nature's god entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of manking requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the the exeparation We hold these buths to be self-english; that all me created equal discharge about that from that equal exection they down life & liberty, & the pressuit of happiness; that to secure these course, go vernments are instituted among men, deriving their just provers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, It's institute new government, laying it's foundation on such principles Horganising it's powers in such form, a to them shall seem most likely to effect their safely & nippin w. prudence indeed will dichate that governments long established should not be the for light & transient causes: and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed but when a long train of abuses & usurprations begun at a distinguished preriod, Dimensions invariably the same object, coinces a design to which reduce them to absolute Despotson it is their right, it is their duty to throw off such + It's movide new mards for their future security, such has been the patient sufferance of trese colonies; I such is now the necessity which constrains them to Ecopunge their former systems of government.

The history of his present with is a history of tunnemitting injuries and usurpations, [among which, ample dict the uniform tenor of the rest, all of which have in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these states to prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world, for the truth of which we pledge a faith yet unsullied by falsehood